

The Women's Luncheon is hosted by the Women's Task Force and is open to all Annual Meeting attendees. The luncheon's focus is networking and mentoring with senior ACNP members seated at each table to afford attendees the opportunity for new professional contacts, career advice, and involvement in College activities. The presentation topic and speaker have not yet been selected.