

Dear Member,

The following are the instructions to access the On-line version of Schizophrenia Research:

Start by going to:

<http://www.schres-journal.com/>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Schizophrenia Research journal. At the top, the journal title "SCHIZOPHRENIA RESEARCH" is displayed in white on a dark red background, with the subtitle "The Official Journal of the Schizophrenia International Research Society" below it. On the right side of the header, there are links for "RSS Feeds", "SIRS Member Login", "Login", and "Register". Below the header is a navigation menu with items: "Articles & Issues", "For Authors", "Journal Info", "Subscribe", "SIRS", and "More Periodicals". A search bar is located below the navigation menu, with a dropdown menu set to "All Fields" and a "Go" button. To the left of the main content area is a section titled "On the Cover" featuring a thumbnail of the journal cover and two buttons: "New Issue Alert" and "Free Trial Issue". The main content area is titled "Current Issue" and specifies "April 2011, Vol. 127, No. 1". Below this, there are sections for "Issue Highlights", "Guest Editorial" (with a link to "Reconceptualizing Schizophrenia"), "Review" (with a link to "Schizophrenia, 'Just the Facts' 6. Moving ahead with the schizophrenia concept: From the elephant to the mouse"), and "Invited Commentaries" (with a link to "Moving on in Schizophrenia Research to the next decade"). On the right side of the main content area, there is a video player titled "Can Schizophrenia be prevented?" with a play button and a progress bar. Below the video player, there is a copyright notice: "This video is copyrighted by MNG Global Medical News Network and cannot be used commercially without permission. For Information on reprints and video licensing please contact Nick Iademarco at Wrights Media."

On the right hand side:

This is a close-up screenshot of the registration options on the website. It shows a dark red background with white text. At the top, there are links for "SIRS Member Login", "Login", and "Register" with a dropdown arrow. Below these, there are three buttons: "Register as a Guest", "Register and Activate Your Subscription", and "Register and Activate Your Subscription".

Once logged in search for a periodical, choose Schizophrenia Research
