

Dear Member,

We have completed an arrangement with the Schizophrenia International Research Society for Schizophrenia Bulletin to be an official journal. You will now receive the Bulletin as a benefit of membership in the Society (print and online access).

Online Registration Instructions

In order to activate access to your online journal content, there's a simple, set-up process, whether you have a personal or institutional subscription.

First-time users of Oxford Journals

First you must set up an account with Oxford Journals "My Account" which will allow you to manage your subscriptions and access other useful services.

To set up your account visit "My Account" at www.oxfordjournals.org/register and follow the link "Click here to register as a new user with Oxford Journals". You will need the following:

1. Your contact details, including a named contact, postal address and email address so we can keep you up-to-date with changes and improvements to our service.
2. A username and password. Keep a secure record of these details as you will need them to access your account in future.
3. Confirm your new account by clicking "submit"
4. You will now need to activate your subscriptions in order to access the full text online.

Activating access to your subscriptions

1. Select "Manage Your Subscriptions" from the "My Account" page.
2. Before registering for access to your subscriptions both personal and institutional subscribers must first read and agree to the terms of the online licence provided on the screen.
3. Next enter your subscriber number in the box provided. This is the 8-digit number supplied when your subscription was agreed and is listed above.
4. Once the subscriber number has been registered, personal subscribers may access the full text of their subscriptions using their username and password. Go to www.oxfordjournals.org to search or browse your selected titles.

Yours sincerely
